AMIA ANNUAL AWARDS NOMINATIONS
AWARDS CRITERIA

The Maryann Gomes Award

In memory of Maryann Gomes, the Association of Moving Image Archivists (AMIA) has established the Maryann Gomes Award. The purpose of this award is to provide funding assistance for regional archivists to attend the Annual AMIA Conference.

Maryann Gomes was instrumental in the creation of AMIA's Regional Audio Visual Archives Interest Group and served as its first chairperson. Founding Director of the North West Film Archives at Manchester Metropolitan University in Manchester, England, Ms. Gomes promoted the depth and diversity inherent in regional moving image collections and tirelessly championed their historical research value.

The purpose of the award is to:

1. Increase participation in AMIA by archivists/ librarians/curators who have been financially unable to take advantage of AMIA membership benefits;
2. Provide active learning opportunities and interaction between audio-visual professionals from around the world;
3. Give archivists/librarians/curators the opportunity to add to their professional development in a positive and inclusive atmosphere;
4. Expand AMIA's outreach and foster internationalism.

One award will be offered annually. The award provides up to $1,000.00 U.S. to assist with AMIA conference-related travel expenses. In addition, a complimentary conference registration, a one-year Individual AMIA membership, and one pre-conference workshop registration will be included (total approximate value $1,500.00 U.S.).

Applications are due to the AMIA Office by April 30. Please submit to: AMIA Maryann Gomes Award - 1313 North Vine Street, Los Angeles, CA 90028, or by email at amia@amianet.org.

Those individuals wishing to contribute to the Maryann Gomes Fund to help support this award are invited to contact AMIA. AMIA is a 501(c)3
